

Maria, 33, graphic designer

A broken leg won't stop this leap into self-employment

Leaving the corporate world to start her own graphic design business was a big step for Maria. One of her biggest concerns was medical insurance — could she find affordable coverage?

Maria purchased a major medical plan with a low premium — but a $5,000 deductible. To help cover her high deductible and coinsurance costs, she supplemented the policy with an AIG Accident Expense Plus plan. She opted for the $7,000 per calendar year accident benefit with a $250 deductible.

Three months later, Maria fell, breaking her leg in two places. Her injury required an emergency room visit, surgery to reset the bone, three months in a cast and six weeks of physical therapy. The medical bills could have derailed her business plans, but because Maria had an AIG Accident Expense Plus policy, her only expense was the $250 deductible. Broken leg or not, Maria kept marching steadily toward her goals.

Some things are just better together...

like your major medical plan and
 AIG Accident Expense PlusSM Insurance

The intelligent, affordable way to complete your health insurance program

THE STRENGTH TO BE THERE.®

Over 50% of all bankruptcies in America are medically related.¹

To cope with skyrocketing medical costs, more and more employers and individuals are choosing major medical insurance policies that have increased deductibles and co-pays. While these plans often make health insurance premiums more affordable, they also shift responsibility for a large portion of health care costs to you.

AIG Accident Expense PlusSM is perfect for individuals and families who would like to experience fewer out-of-pocket medical expenses in the case of an accident or critical illness.⁴

Imagine a financial tool that:

- Helps cover deductibles, co-pays and other expenses not covered by your primary major medical plan.
- Pays medical benefits to you regardless of other coverage you have.
- Rapidly reimburses you for a wide variety of covered medical expenses related to accidents.²
- Provides lump sum payouts if you're diagnosed with any of three major critical illnesses.⁴

That's AIG Accident Expense Plus — an economical and intelligent way to protect your family from today's high health care costs. AIG Accident Expense Plus provides benefits for a wide range of accident-related costs, from emergency room visits to physical therapy to diagnostic exams — even surgery. The "plus" is an optional Critical Illness Rider that can pay a lump sum benefit if you're diagnosed with invasive cancer, heart attack or stroke.

Did you know?

Accidents occur more frequently than you might think.

- About 1 out of every 9 Americans seek medical attention for an injury each year.³
- Over 28 million people were treated in hospital emergency rooms for injuries.³
- Approximately 58.4 million visits to physician offices were due to unintentional injuries.³

Flexible Policy Options

AIG Accident Expense Plus allows you to choose deductible amounts ranging from $0 to $500 and calendar year benefit maximums in increments of $1,000 up to $15,000. Annual benefits for the Critical Illness Rider⁴ are $5,000, $10,000, $15,000, $20,000 or $25,000. AIG Accident Expense Plus gives you the power to tailor your benefits to your budget and your individual needs.

Jack, 16, rising basketball star

Out-of-network specialist is an affordable part of the team

Needed treatment from a specialist outside the network of their major medical plan

John and Samantha were proud parents — their son Jack was an outstanding student who was also becoming a highly-recruited basketball star. When he fractured his wrist in the playoffs, the family's doctor referred him to a specialist outside their major medical carrier's network.

Thanks to the family's AIG Accident Expense Plus policy, John and Samantha were promptly reimbursed for their out-of-network expenses and received additional benefits for the treatment and physical therapy. Jack made a full recovery and was back on the court the following season. His bank shot — and his parents' bank accounts — were as strong as ever.
